

International Day on Monuments and Sites 2015

ICOMOS Hungarian National Committee,
the
Parliamentary State Secretariat of the Prime Minister's Office and the Gyula Forster National Centre for Cultural Heritage Management are pleased to invite you to their Ceremonial Meeting entitled

„There is no Future without the Past”

Date: 20 April 2015 at 09:30
Venue: Várkert Bazár (1013 Budapest, Ybl Miklós tér 2-6.)

The Principal Patron of the event will be Dr Tibor Navracsics European Commissioner for Education, Culture and Youth

Program:

09.00-09.30 Registration

WORLD HERITAGE DAY CELEBRATION

Greetings and ceremonial commemoration

Chair: Gergely Nagy, President of ICOMOS Hungarian National Committee

- 09:30 - 09:35 Csaba Gyutai, Managing Director of Várgondnokság Közhasznú Nonprofit Kft.
09:35 - 09:45 László L. Simon, Deputy Minister, Secretary of State of the Prime Minister's Office
09:45 - 09:55 Miklós Réthelyi, President of UNESCO Hungarian National Committee
09:55 - 10:05 András Doncsev, Vice-President of the National Cultural Fund of Hungary
10:05 - 10:15 Attila Ságghi, President of Gyula Forster National Centre for Cultural Heritage Management
10:15 - 10:25 Gergely Nagy, President of ICOMOS Hungarian National Committee
10:25 - 10:35 Gábor Nagy, Officer, Government Office for Pest County
10:35 - 11.40 Presenting ICOMOS awards: „ICOMOS Prize 2015, „Lemon Prize 2015” and „Best practice for maintaining and use Prize 2015”
- 11:40 - 12:00 Break
- 12:00 - 12:30 Presenting Ministerial Awards:
„Gyula Forster Prize” for Monument Protection
„István Schönvisner Prize” for Archaeological Heritage
- 13:30-13:00 Lunch

Scientific program

Current tasks for the cultural heritage preservation in Central Europe today and tomorrow

Symposium presided by Tamás Fejérdy - Hungary

- 13:30-13:55           Grellan ROURKE – Ireland:
Main challenges of the preservation of the European cultural heritage – the importance of cooperation of all stakeholders
- 13:55-14:20           Tamas FEJERDY – Hungary:
Charters and documents – the future vocation of ICOMOS comes from its own already 50 years long antecedents
- 14:20-14:45           Wilfried LIPP - Austria:
Venice Charter - 50 years later
Dealing with a weakened pillar and options for rehabilitation.
- 14:45-15:05           Andras VEOREOS - Hungary:
Major questions of the nowadays' practice of the cultural heritage preservation
- 15:05-15:25                               coffee-break
- 15:25-15:50           Boguslaw SZMYGIN – Poland:
Reality and possibilities of cultural heritage preservation in Central Post-Communist Europe
- 15:50-16:15           Gergely NAGY – Hungary:
New social cooperation for an efficient preservation of cultural heritage in the future
(Presentation of the program “Heritage for the future – future for the heritage”)
- 16:15-17:00           Discussion

