ICOMOS e-News n° 206 - February 2022

18 April 2022 | Heritage and Climate

In 1982, ICOMOS established 18 April as the International Day for Monuments and Sites, followed by UNESCO adoption during its 22nd General Conference. Each year, on this occasion, ICOMOS proposes a theme for activities to be organized by its members, ICOMOS National and International Scientific Committees, Working Groups and partners, and anyone who wants to join in marking the Day.

Building on last year's theme "Complex Pasts: Diverse Futures" – for 2022, we call on you all to explore the theme: Heritage and Climate through open, constructive and intergenerational dialogues.

Send in your upcoming webinars for the next ICOMOS e-News!

The deadline is almost here to send in information about your upcoming webinars for the next ICOMOS e-News, which will be published in March.

If you are an ICOMOS Committee or an ICOMOS Working Group organizing a webinar and want it to be included in the next ICOMOS e-news, please fill out this template and send it to project.intern@icomos.org by 25 February 2022, making sure that the email subject line is entitled: "ICOMOS Upcoming Webinars e-News".

The Secretariat will then include your webinar in the "Upcoming Webinars" article on the ICOMOS website and in ICOMOS March e-news.

We invite you to watch previous ICOMOS webinars on the ICOMOS Webinars page. If you would like to have your webinar recording added to this page, please contact project.intern@icomos.org.

We look forward to hearing from you!
