WG.8- Activities and Events

Coronavirus alienates people, yet internet can bring us together in any case. Seminars, webinars, symposiums, forums...academic and other events may keep the group active. We actively suggest the participation in some events shared by our members.

April 18, 2021- ICOMOS DAY

This year, the topic of International Day for Monuments and Sites is Complex Pasts: Diverse Futures. Our members in different locations are organizing/participating in some events to commemorate this special day:

- China- Wuhan - is preparing a symposium celebrating the 100th anniversary of a Shared Built Heritage building. We will be helping members organizing activities and events to promote SBH protection and Conservation.

Alma Mater: The Voice of Heritage Behind the Masks – Complex Pasts: Diverse Futures-
International Day for Monuments and Sites 2021

To commemorate International Day for Monuments and Sites, the Heritage SCENA 5.0 project presents “Alma Mater- The Voice of Heritage Behind the Masks – Complex Pasts: Diverse Futures”, to be broadcast on April 18, at 8 pm (4 pm Brazilian time). The project, which features cultural heritage sites in Brazil and Portugal, was created and produced by Bahian producer Christiano Bomfim (a member of ISCSBH ICOMOS) and has the backing of the General Library of the University of Coimbra, the RUAS Association, ICOMOS Portugal # and Criola Filmes. The event will be open to the public with live streaming (on demand) on the ICOMOS-PT Facebook channel.
