Czech ICOMOS President Dies

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Deeply moved we announce the death of Professor Dobroslav Libal, President of the ICOMOS Czech National Committee.

With him the Czech ICOMOS loses a brilliant chairman and Czech heritage preservation movement its leading personality. Dobroslav Libal was a great scientist, unexhaustible conservationist and beloved teacher. The years of collaboration with him all of us consider as a great privilege in our lives.

Tracking the Dragon

On the 13th February 2002 Minister for the Environment and Heritage Dr David Kemp MP launched a new publication Tracking the Dragon.

Tracking the Dragon has been prepared by the Australian Heritage Commission and is designed to help individuals, community groups and heritage practitioners to find out more about the heritage places which tell the story of Chinese life in Australia.

The publication is divided into two separate parts:

- A guide for finding and assessing Chinese Australian heritage places.
- A toolkit for researching and assessing Chinese Australian Heritage Places.

Both the Guide and Toolkit are available for download at <http://www.ahc.gov.au/chineseheritage>.

Second-Hand and Off-Cut Sandstone on Sale (Sydney)

The Department of Public Works Heritage Services (NSW) are having a sale (cash basis only) of second hand and off-cut sandstone.

Contact: Adel Amin the Manager of Heritage Operations on 02 9565 9043 mobile: 0408 452 162 to view the stone.
