

Honorary Membership of ICOMOS

Honorary Membership is conferred by the General Assembly, at the proposal of a National Committee, upon individuals who have rendered distinguished service in the field of conservation, restoration and enhancement of historical monuments, sites, and groups of buildings (article 6-a-4 of the ICOMOS Statutes).

Following a well-established tradition, the Jury of the Piero Gazzola Prize also proposes to the General Assembly the list for ICOMOS Honorary Membership based on the proposals received from the National Committees. Honorary Members do not pay membership fees.

Honorary Membership of ICOMOS has been conferred so far on 65 ICOMOS members and 8 Honorary Memberships have been conferred posthumously. For the complete list of ICOMOS Honorary members, see below.

ICOMOS Honorary Members come from all over the world and represent 37 National Committees: Argentina, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Cyprus, (former) Czechoslovakia, Czech Republic, Cuba, Denmark, Ecuador, Egypt, Finland, France, (former) GDR, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Peru, Poland, Romania, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States of America, (former) USSR.

National Committees submitting proposals for ICOMOS Honorary Membership should include:

- a note setting forth the rationale behind the nomination (maximum 750 words in .rtf format),
- the candidate's curriculum vitae,
- a brief presentation of the candidates (max 3 lines)

Proposals must be submitted in English and/or French, in electronic format. Additional version in Spanish are welcome.

For 2011, National Committees should send their nomination by 27 May 2011 to the International Secretariat at secretariat@icomos.org
