

Presentation of the Members of the Bureau of the Executive Committee

President

Mr Gustavo Araoz is a preservation architect with a B.Architecture from the Catholic University of America, and an M.A. from Georgetown. He completed the international Architectural Conservation program in the Paul Coremans Institute in Mexico.

His career combines professional practice, academia, and institutional management. From 1995 to 2009 he served as Executive Director of US/ICOMOS in Washington. At present, he is an independent heritage consultant. Since 2008, he has served as President of ICOMOS. Prior to that, starting in 2002, he completed two terms as Vice-President.

At the Universities of Pennsylvania and Maryland, he taught conservation theory, site management, and was in charge of the urban conservation studio. He has been visiting professor at the Universities of São Paulo and Curaçao, the Catholic University of Salta in Argentina, and CICOP in Tenerife and Buenos Aires. He has also lectured at many universities in the United States.

Gustavo's experience is composed of many and varied projects, including in the World Heritage Sites of Independence Hall, Philadelphia; The University of Virginia; the Petra Sanctuary; the city of Santo Domingo; the Jesuit Estancias in Argentina; and the Citadelle-Sans Souci Complex, Haiti. He has been consultant/advisor to the World Monuments Fund, the US Commission for UNESCO, the Getty Foundation, the Getty Conservation Institute, the National Park Service, the US Departments of Defense and of State, the Organization of American States, the Instituto de Cultura Puertorriqueña, and the national heritage agencies of Paraguay and El Salvador. He speaks English, Spanish and French.

Secretary General

Ms Kirsti Kovanen

Professional profile

2003	Architect in charge of the care of the cultural environment, South Savo Centre for Economic Development, Transport and the Environment, Finland
1989-2003	Consulting Architect in restoration and conservation of the built cultural heritage, Regional Council of South Savo, Finland
1981-1989	Regional planning architect, Regional Council of South Savo, Finland
1985-1986	MA diploma in conservation studies, University of York
1970-1977	Diploma in architecture, Technical University of Helsinki

Qualifications

Architect SAFA, MA (Univ. of York)

Ms Kovanen has published books and articles on regional and vernacular architecture, historic gardens and their conservation, conservation of vernacular architecture, the principles of conservation a.o. topics related to heritage conservation. Her present work in heritage administration includes long-term planning of conservation measures, varies from subsidies and funding to guiding and monitoring protection of all immovable heritage, and from implementing the strategic measures regionally and locally to the practices of protection and restoration projects.

She is a member in several national committees dealing with World Heritage issues, the Hague Convention and the arts and architecture in Finland.

Her activities in ICOMOS Finland

2006	Elected President of ICOMOS Finland
2005	Vice President of ICOMOS Finland
1990-95, 2005	Elected member of the board of ICOMOS Finland
1986-	Member of ICOMOS Finland

And in ICOMOS International

2008-2011	Member of the Executive Committee, member of the World Heritage Working Group and Publications Working Group of the Executive Committee
2005	Honorary member of CIAV
1997-2005	Secretary General of the ICOMOS ISC on Vernacular Architecture (CIAV)

Within the framework of her ICOMOS activities, Ms Kovanen has, among other, chaired seminars, edited publication and written articles for the ICOMOS Finland newsletter. She also participated in the drafting, editing and translation of ICOMOS charters and declarations, and in the evaluation of sites nominated for World Heritage listing.

Treasurer General

Ms Laura Robinson

Qualified as an architect at the University of Cape Town, Laura is currently the Director of the Cape Town Heritage Trust, one of the leading non-governmental heritage organisations in the country, tasked with the mission to conserve and promote the built heritage and cultural landscape of the Cape Town. In this role Laura has been responsible for the development of a number of policy documents including approaches to urban revitalisation and renewal, and the identification and rehabilitation of public open spaces in the city.

Laura previously served as Regional Manager for the Western Cape office of the National Monuments Council, where she was involved in a number of initiatives including the sustainable conservation of rural settlements (the mission stations in particular).

A founder member of ICOMOS South Africa, Laura has been involved with a number of World Heritage Sites. She has attended various meetings of the World Heritage Committee as part of the South African national delegation. Responsible for the compilation of the nomination dossier for Robben Island, Laura is currently busy with the preparation of the dossier for the Cape Winelands Cultural Landscape. In 2003 she was invited by ICOMOS to undertake the evaluation mission of one of the Australian sites nominated for listing to the World Heritage List - The Royal Exhibition Building and Carlton Gardens in Melbourne.

Laura has previously served on the Council of the Robben Island Museum and is now on the Council of the South African Heritage Resources Agency and Heritage Western Cape. She is Past President of the Cape Institute for Architecture and has served on the Board of the South African Institute of Architects for a number of years.

She is Bureau member of the ISC20C and a member of CIVVIH.

Vice-President

Ms Kristal Buckley has served as an International Vice-President of ICOMOS since 2005, and has been an active contributor to many aspects of the work of the International Executive Committee including the ICOMOS World Heritage programme and Scientific Council, and with ICOMOS members and National Committees in the Asia-Pacific region.

Trained in archaeology, anthropology and public policy, Kristal Buckley is a Lecturer in Cultural Heritage at Deakin University's Cultural Heritage Centre for Asia and the Pacific in Melbourne, Australia. She has worked as a heritage consultant in private practice and in government. She served as a full member of the Heritage Council of Victoria for nine years, and has represented cultural heritage professionals at advocacy and advisory forums at the national level. Her work in Australia has included Indigenous and non-Indigenous heritage projects, policy and management, with an emphasis on community involvement. She is a member of the ICOMOS ISC for Intangible Cultural Heritage. She has also worked as an advisor to governments in environmental policy – particularly in relation to sustainability and climate change.

Vice-President

Mr Alfredo Conti

Architect (La Plata, 1977), Building Conservator (Buenos Aires, 1989). Urban planner and coordinator of the commission on urban and architectural heritage of La Plata (1977-1991). Director of Heritage Preservation in La Plata (2004-2006). Since 1991, researcher on urban conservation and modern heritage at the Commission for Scientific Research of the Province of Buenos Aires. He is Adviser at the National Commission for Historic Monuments and Sites and Professor at La Plata University.

He started collaborating with ICOMOS Argentina in 1982, where he has been Secretary General (1996-1999), Vice-President (1999-2007) and President of the National Committee since April 2007. Representative of the ICOMOS National Committee at the Argentine Committee for World Heritage (2007-2008).

In ICOMOS General Assemblies, he acted as member of the Resolutions Committee (Mexico, 1999), Secretary General of the Assembly (Madrid, 2002), Assistant Rapporteur of the General Assembly (Victoria Falls, 2003) and Rapporteur of one of the sessions of the Scientific Symposium (Xi'an, 2005). From 2000 onwards, he has represented ICOMOS in evaluation and monitoring missions to World Heritage properties in Latin America and in the elaboration and follow-up of the periodic report on the implementation of the World Heritage Convention in Latin America and the Caribbean (2002-2007). In 2007-2008 he acted as Advisor of ICOMOS for the evaluation of nominations to the World Heritage List. Elected Member of the Executive Committee in 2008, he occupied the Vice-Presidency in the period 2010-2011. Since March 2010, he chairs the ICOMOS World Heritage Working Group. He speaks Spanish, English, French, Italian and Portuguese.

Vice-President

Mr Gideon Koren

Education

LL.B and LL.M with a distinction from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Faculty of Law.

Professional Experience

- 1982-84: Chairman of the Student Union of the Faculty of Law.
- 1980-86: A tour guide for the Society for the Protection of Nature in Israel.
- 1984: Articled clerk at the Supreme Court of Israel.
- 1985: Associate attorney at Weil law firm, Israel
- 1983 - Present: Adjunct teacher \ lecturer at the Hebrew University Faculty of Law and the Faculty of Social Sciences, Tel-Aviv University, Bezalel Academy and The Israeli Technion, teaching various aspects of heritage preservation laws.
- 1989 - Present: Legal advisor to the Society for the Preservation of Israel Heritage Sites.
- 2001 – 2008: Founding partner in Ben Zvi-Koren & co. law offices in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.
- 2008 – Present: Founding partner in Gideon Koren & co. law offices in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.

ICOMOS Positions

- 1997: Founding member of ICLAFI (ICOMOS Scientific Committee on Legal, Administrative and Financial Issues).
- 1999 - Present: Member of the ICOMOS Israel Executive Committee.
- 2000-2003: Vice President of ICLAFI.
- 2003 - 2009: Secretary General of ICLAFI.
- 2004 - Present: ICOMOS Israel President.
- 2009 – Present: ICLAFI President

Vice-President

Mr Benjamin Mouton

Born in 1948, qualified architect DPLG (1972), diploma from the Ecole de Chaillot (1975), Chief Architect of Historic Monuments (1980) and General Inspector of Historic Monuments (1994). Since 1980 he has worked on studies and projects and directed the restoration work on the historic monuments of the Finistere and Morbihan (1980 to 1987), the Eure (1987 to 1993) and the Eure et Loir (1987 to 1994) departments. He is currently responsible for the Hotel National des Invalides, the Val de Grace, the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Beaux Arts and the cathedral of Notre-Dame de Paris.

A former president of ICOMOS France (2000 to 2006) and of the Academie d'Architecture (2005 to 2008), he is responsible for international projects (ICOMOS Executive Committee, UNESCO Expert) and has participated in many national and international congresses.

Associate professor at the Ecole de Chaillot since 1993, he is responsible for the coordination of the Department of Architecture. Having created the joint workshops in 1994, he oversaw the work of the workshops (in Romania, Scotland, China and Greece) and also teaches in schemes organised by the school in Sofia, Damascus and Rabat.

Knight of the Ordre National de la Legion d'Honneur, Officer in the Ordre National du Merite and the Ordre des Arts et Lettres. Commandeur of the Merite Culturel Roumain, Honorary Fellow of the American Institute of Architects.

Vice-President

Mr Guo Zhan

Current Position

Director, World Heritage Expert Committee of China, a non-governmental professional consultant institution designated by the State Administration of Cultural Heritage (SACH)
Senior Researcher on history and archaeology (equivalent to Professor)
Concurrent Professor, Chinese Academy of Governance
ICOMOS Vice President, first elected by the 15th General Assembly in 2005
Vice Chairman and Secretary-General of ICOMOS China
Director of IICC-Xi'an

Education

1979-1982, Masters in Mongolian History and Yuan Dynasty History, Department of History, Graduate School of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
1973-1976, Archaeology Department, Peking University

Work Experience and Professional Achievements

Worked within the State Administration of Cultural Heritage on the protection, management and research of ancient architecture, historic cities and archaeological sites, successively acting as project manager, deputy division chief, director of the General Office, director of the Cultural Relics Division, director of the Division of World Heritage, and commissioner of the Department of Cultural Heritage Protection until retirement.
Took part in the deliberations and research with regards to the Nara Document on Authenticity in Nara, Japan in 1994 and 2004.

Major Activities in recent years:

Organized ICOMOS Asia-Pacific Group meetings in China; the international and national post-disaster heritage rescue and protection measures in the wake of Wenchuan earthquake in 2008; various symposia on the protection and management of cultural landscapes, industrial heritage, and the Grand Canal of China, etc.;

Engaged in the conservation and monitoring of heritage sites in China;

Chair of the International Symposium on the Concepts and Practices of Conservation and Restoration of Historic Buildings in East Asia.

Participated in the revision of the Principles for the Conservation of Heritage Sites in China.

Organized the translating into Chinese of a History of Architectural Conservation written by Jukka Jokilehto, the ICOMOS Charter on the Interpretation and Presentation of Cultural Heritage Sites (ICIP), Preparing World Heritage Nominations (World Heritage Centre, ICOMOS, IUCN), and of some interesting discussion papers of ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on the Theory and Philosophy of Conservation and Restoration.

Presentation of the Members of the Executive Committee

Member of the Executive Committee

Ms Sofia Avgerinou-Kolonias

Architect Engineer - Urban Planner, M.A. Degree in History and Civilization, and Ph.D. in Urban Geography (University of Paris). Professor at the Faculty of Architecture - National Technical University of Athens and director of its Regional Planning Laboratory and of the Department of Urban and Regional Planning.

As a freelance consultant she has been involved in urban and regional planning and development studies for the public sector in Greece and Cyprus. Her academic career since 1981 comprises considerable writing and research work on the current problems of historic cities and villages, the protection and evaluation of tangible and intangible urban heritage and urban tourism.

Member (since 1979) and today elected Vice-President of the ICOMOS Hellenic National Committee; she has been working for the preservation and protection of historical monuments, sites and cities (Greece, Cyprus, South East Europe, Mediterranean countries).

Sofia Avgerinou-Kolonias has actively and systematically contributed to the reinforcement of ICOMOS' international scientific activity as Secretary General of the ISC on Cultural Routes (CIIC), as Vice President and today as Acting President of the ISC on Historic Towns and Villages (CIVVIH), and since 2006 as one of the Scientific Council coordinators.

As member of the Executive Committee (2008-2011) she actively and systematically contributed to its demanding scientific and organizational work. More particularly, she participated in the working group for the reinforcement and coordination of the work of the ISCs, and in the ICOMOS World Heritage Working Group.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Stefan Belishki is Associate Professor at the Department of Conservation of the National Academy of Arts in Sofia. He started his career in heritage conservation in 1983. He began work as a conservation-technician at the National Institute for the Monuments of Culture, where he acquired initial practical knowledge. In 1992, he graduated magna cum laude with a Master's degree from the Conservation Department of the National Academy of Art in Sofia.

Since 1994, Stefan has been teaching in the Department of Conservation of the Academy. He also runs a private practice in art conservation. He has managed a number of wall painting conservation projects in Bulgaria.

Stefan was enrolled in several courses and workshops in Europe and the U.S., including the ICCROM course Sharing Conservation Decisions of 2004.

Stefan Belishki was member of the board of ICOMOS Bulgaria from 2005-2009, Vice President from 2008-2009 and has been President of the National Committee since 2009. Stefan is co-founding member of the re-established ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Wall Paintings. He has special interest in the work the International Training Committee (CIF), and is also interested in the activities of the International Scientific Committee on Theory and Philosophy of Conservation and Restoration. He was member of the Executive Committee of ICOMOS International for 2010-2011 (succeeding the late Hristina Staneva).

Stefan is a member of ICOM, participating in its Education and Wall Paintings groups, and of the Bulgarian Association of Conservators. He still finds time to publish articles in specialized journals and present papers and posters at conferences and symposiums.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Dinu Bumbaru graduated in architecture and conservation at ICCROM and the University of York. He is Policy Director and main spokesperson for the media at the Heritage Montreal Foundation, an independent civic organisation working through education and advocacy to safeguard and revitalise the built, landscape, commemorative, archaeological and natural heritage of the historical metropolis of Canada. He is active in metropolitan and national organisations in the fields of heritage, environment, cultural and economic development and regional planning. He is associate professor in architecture at the Université de Montréal and is an expert and advisor to municipal and governmental authorities in Canada and abroad. He takes part in many symposiums, discussions and public consultations taking these as opportunities to introduce ICOMOS and raise support for its work and principles.

Since 2009, Dinu Bumbaru is President of ICOMOS Canada. He was member of the Executive Committee between 1993-2008 and Secretary General from 2002-2008, overseeing the organisation of three General Assemblies, including the first one held in Africa. He contributes to the work of the International Scientific Committees on 20th C. Heritage, Theory of Conservation and Risk Preparedness. He coordinated the drafting of the ICOMOS-TICCIH joint principles on industrial heritage. For this involvement, and his contribution to the progress of the cause of heritage and its conservation locally and globally, he was appointed to the Order of Canada.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Francesco Caruso

Degree in Political Sciences, Naples, 1962.

Certificate in European High Studies from the "College of Europe", Bruges, 1963

International Officer at the Brussels European Union Committee, 1963-1968

Begins his diplomatic career in 1968, advancing through all the grades up to Ambassador.

Retired since 2007.

Among his diplomatic assignments:

- Consul in South Africa
- General Consul in France
- Permanent Representative of Italy at the European Parliament in Strasbourg and at the European Union in Brussels
- Chief of the Italian Diplomatic Mission in Chile
- Ambassador in Tunisia.
- UNESCO Permanent Representative for Italy in Paris
- Ambassador in Sweden.

Among his assignments in Italy:

Diplomatic Advisor of the:

- Ministry of Foreign Commerce
- Ministry of Grace and Justice
- Vice President of the Council of Ministers
- Chief of Cabinet of the Minister for Foreign Affairs

Among his current assignments:

- Special Advisor to the UNESCO Director General since 2007 - confirmed in 2011
- Associate Professor at Sciences Po (Paris, France) Institute for Political Studies, since 2007
- Vice President of ICOMOS Italy since 2008 - confirmed in 2011
- International Cultural Affairs Advisor of the City of Naples since 2007 (Scientific Committee for the Management Plan of the Historic Centre of Naples – World Heritage Site. Naples Project within the UNESCO "Creative Cities" network
- UN Habitat Project - Naples 2012.
- Universal Forum of Cultures - Naples 2013
- Member of the Board of Directors of the European University Centre for Cultural Heritage in Ravello
- CUEBC, on-line Quarterly Cultural and Economic Review: section head since 2010

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Rohit Jigyasu is a conservation architect and risk management consultant from India, currently working as UNESCO Chair professor at the Research Centre for Disaster Mitigation of Urban Cultural Heritage at Ritsumeikan University, Kyoto, Japan. He is a member of ICOMOS India and President of the ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Risk Preparedness (ICORP). He is also Principal researcher from India for the joint Research Project 'Understanding habitats, housing and social changes in post-disaster traditional and relocated rural settlements in India' being undertaken through collaboration between Chitakara University, Chandigarh and the University of Applied Sciences of Southern Switzerland.

After undertaking his post-graduate degree in Architectural Conservation at the School of Planning and Architecture in Delhi, he obtained a doctoral degree in Engineering from the Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Trondheim, Norway.

Rohit has been teaching as the visiting faculty at several national and international academic institutions in India and abroad. As a professor at the Research Centre for Disaster Mitigation of Urban Cultural Heritage, he is the scientific coordinator of the UNESCO Chair Programme on Disaster Risk Management of Cultural Heritage. Rohit has also been consultant to several national and international organizations, such as the Archaeological Survey of India, UNESCO, ICCROM and the Getty Conservation Institute, for conducting research and training on Cultural Heritage Risk Management. He also brings with him the practical experience of working on risk management plans at several World Heritage sites in India. Rohit has contributed to several national and international conferences and meetings in India and abroad and has several publications to his credit.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Toshiyuki Kono

Education:

LL.B. and LL.M. from Kyoto University , Japan

Current Position:

Distinguished Professor, Kyushu University, Japan

Vice President and Titular Member of the International Academy of Comparative Law

Chairman of the Committee for Intellectual Property and Private International Law, the International Law Association

Chairman of the Committee for Cultural Affairs of the UNESCO National Commission, Japan

Member of the Committee for Heritage Law, the International Law Association

Member of the Committee for Intangible Cultural Heritage at the Council for Cultural Affairs, Japan

Professional Experience:

2010: Chairperson of the 3rd General Assembly of the State Parties of the UNESCO Convention for the Safeguarding of Intangible Cultural Heritage, Paris

2007: Chairperson of the Legal Committee of the 34th UNESCO General Conference, Paris

1997- present: Tenured Professor of Law, Kyushu University

1997 and 2011: Fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation

1986-1996: Tenured Associate Professor at Kyushu University

ICOMOS Positions:

2010 - present: Vice President of Japan ICOMOS

1997 – 1999: Secretary General of ICLAFI (ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Legal, Administrative and Financial Issues)

1997: Founding member of ICLAFI

1997 – present: Member of Japan ICOMOS

Selected Publications:

Kono T. (ed.), The Impact of Uniform Laws on the Protection of Cultural Heritage and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage in the 21st Century, Martinus Nijhoff, Leiden/Boston, (2010), pp.786.

Kono T. (ed.), Intangible Cultural Heritage and Intellectual Property – Communities, Cultural Diversity and Sustainable Development, Intersentia, Antwerp/Oxford/Portland, (2009), pp.415.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Philippe la Hausse de la Louvière

Particulars

Born 1956

Speaks French, English and Créole

Mauritian nationality, residing in Mauritius, Indian Ocean

Education

University educated (BSc Hons) in natural sciences, specializing in African fisheries ecology

Employment

General Manager of Les Moulins de la Concorde Ltd, a profitable agro-industrial enterprise, and director of other food-producing companies, in Mauritius. Responsibilities include managing a substantial team of people, resources and development projects, and include travel, technical development, financial and treasury management, product R&D and marketing.

Relevant Responsibilities

Founding President of the Mauritius National Heritage Trust (responsible for all national heritage) and of ICOMOS Mauritius, President of Friends of the Environment and past-President of the Société de l'Histoire de l'Île Maurice, past Board member of the Mauritius Museums Council, the National Environmental Advisory Council and the Apravasi Ghat Trust.

Co-opted member of ICOMOS Executive Committee (2006-2008), elected member (2008-2011) serving as Treasurer-General since 2009, founding Vice-President of the ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Fortifications and Military Heritage.

Has initiated and conducted major heritage projects – heritage site restoration, archaeological programmes, cultural tourism initiatives and historic building restoration projects. Has participated in numerous MAB and UNESCO expert and international meetings.

Communications

45 papers on heritage, environmental and ecological issues in scientific and popular publications.

7 books on heritage conservation and history, including Martello Towers in Mauritius (2000); Les Bâisseurs de l'Île Maurice (2007); Coastal fortifications of Mauritius (1998); Souillac – village historique et cimetière marin (1997)

1 Film on heritage (Un patrimoine profané)

Member of the Executive Committee

Univ-Prof. Dr. Wilfried Lipp was born in 1945. Grew up in Linz. Studied Architecture, Philosophy, Ethnology and Art History in Graz and Salzburg. PhD in Art History, supervised by Prof. Hans Sedlmayr renowned for his widely cited contribution „Art in Crisis: The Lost Center.“.

In charge of monitoring, listing and supervision of the restoration of monuments and sites for the Bundesdenkmalamt (Austrian Federal Monuments Office in Vienna) from 1970. Landeskonservator (Head of the Upper Austrian Office) from 1992 to 2010.

Habilitation (postdoctoral qualifications) in 1985 with work on the genesis of conservation philosophy from the 18th century to the present. Honorary Professor and Professor at various Austrian universities since 1980. Several articles in relevant books, as well as his own publications. Publisher of a new series on reconstruction and architectural authenticity. Awarded the Austrian Cross of Honour for Science and Art, First Class.

Vice President of ICOMOS International since 2008, President of ICOMOS Austria since 2002, Vice President of the ISC on Theory and Philosophy of Conservation and Restoration since 2005 and currently President ad interim of this committee. Active participation in various working groups and committees. Delegate in evaluation missions and joint UNESCO and ICOMOS missions. Numerous contributions at ICOMOS meetings and conferences.

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Christoph Machat, PhD, Honorary Doctoral Degrees from two Universities; born 1946 in Sighisoara/Transylvania/Romania, studies in art history, archaeology, museology and compared literature at the University of Fine Arts of Bucharest and the University of Cologne (PhD).

Since 1972 working in monuments' conservation, as a district officer for the State Conservation Office of Romania, Bucharest; since 1973 in Germany, working for the Bavarian State Conservation Office, Munich; and from 1980-2011 at the State Conservation Office of the Rhineland, as head of the department of inventories/lists of monuments.

Several books and articles on art history and monuments' conservation; editor of the series "Topography of Historical Monuments in the Rhineland", "Topography of Historical Monuments of Transylvania", "Cultural Monuments of Transylvania". Since 1980 teaching at the Universities of Cologne and Bonn, ICCROM in Rome (1994 – 1996), the University of Architecture "Ion Mincu" in Bucharest. Since 1998 Associate Professor at the University Babes-Bolyai in Cluj Napoca, Romania.

Member of several scientific societies; since 1978 member of ICOMOS, since 1984 member of CIAV, the International Committee on Vernacular Architecture, then its Secretary General (1992 – 1995) and President (1995 – 2005). Vice President of ICOMOS Germany (2000-2009). Member of the ICOMOS Executive Committee since 2008, and responsible since 2010 for the editorial work of the ICOMOS world reports series on "Heritage at Risk". Several evaluation and monitoring missions for UNESCO.

Member of the Executive Committee

Ms Olga Orive

Architect (1971), National Autonomous University of Mexico. Master in Conservation and Restoration of Monuments and Sites, University of Rome - ICCROM, Italy with a scholarship from UNESCO. (1972-1973). Studies and scholarship from the United Nations on Housing, Building and Planning of Social Interest, in several European countries. Course in Photogrammetry with Professor Hans Foramitti in Vienna, Austria.

National Institute of Anthropology and History (INAH). Research Director of the Historic Museum of Churubusco and Head of the Department of Documentation and Public Records of Historic Monuments and Sites; responsible for the catalogue and limit definition of the historic sites of 22 cities and towns in Mexico.

Teacher in several conservation courses: at the National Autonomous University of Mexico UNAM, School of Restoration and Conservation, ENCRYM - INAH - OAS, Technological Institute of Durango, Cristobal Colon University, Veracruz.

Active member of ICOMOS Mexico since 1971. Vice-President (2003-2009). President of the National Committee (2009-2012). Member of the Executive Committee, succeeding Alfredo Conti (2010-2011). Member of the World Heritage Working Group (2011). Co-author of the Zacatecas Charter (2009) and of our National Committee's new Statutes (2010). Member of the Editorial Board of the collection "Banco de Nivel" and "Boletín de Monumentos Históricos" INAH since 2009. Member of the Editorial Board of the newspaper Reforma's Cultural Section (2011).

Co-author, translations, bibliographies, conferences and museum exhibitions on the restoration of monuments and sites for ICCROM, INAH, UNAM and the UNESCO International Centre in Mexico. Olga Orive speaks Spanish, English, French and Italian.

Member of the Executive Committee

Ms Hae-Un Rii

Present occupation:

Professor, Department of Geography, Dongguk University, Seoul, Republic of Korea

Education:

1979-1983 Ph.D. Michigan State University, USA

1974-1976 MA Ewha Womans University, ROK

1970-1974 BA Ewha Womans University, ROK

Research Interests:

Urban Historical Geography, Cultural Geography, Cultural Heritage

ICOMOS Activities:

ICOMOS-Korea (Apr. 1999 – present)

Founding member, Secretary General, Auditor, Executive Committee member, Vice President
Organization of the 2005, 2006 (ICOMOS ISC Cultural Tourism Workshop) & 2007 Asia-Pacific Regional Meetings

Attended domestic and international forums, workshops & conferences

ICOMOS International

Nov.–Dec. 2002 Served as a teller for the election at the 13th General Assembly of ICOMOS

Oct. 2003 Served as a member of the Credentials Committee at the 14th General Assembly of ICOMOS / Presented a paper “Jongmyo: Iconography of Korea”
January 2005 “Risk Preparedness for Cultural Heritage in Korea,” presented a paper at the Risk Preparedness for Cultural Heritage in Asia and Circum-Pacific Region meeting hosted by ICOMOS-Japan, Kyoto, Japan.

Oct. 2005-Oct. 2008 Executive Committee member
Attended ICOMOS related meetings and presented papers: Oct. 2006 (Edinburgh, UK); Oct. 2006 (IICC-Xi’an: Xi’an, China); Jan. 2007 (Risk Preparedness: Nara, Japan); May 2007 (Beijing, China); Oct. 2007 (Pretoria, South Africa); May 2008 (Hangzhou, 2008); Sep.-Oct. 2008 (the 16th General Assembly)

Oct. 2008-present Executive Committee member
World Heritage Working Group member
Steering Committee member of the IICC-Xi’an
Attended ICOMOS related meetings and presented papers: Oct.-Nov. 2008 (Beijing, China); July 2009 (Xi’an & Chengdu, China), Aug. 2009 (Hoi An, Vietnam); Oct. 2009 (Valletta, Malta); Nov. 2009 (Seoul, Korea); Apr. 2010 (Wuxi, China); Oct. 2010 (Dublin, Ireland); Nov. 2010 (Xi’an, China)

Member of the Executive Committee

Mr Grellan D. Rourke

Senior Conservation Architect with the Irish Heritage Service with 33 years experience working for the conservation of architectural heritage. Has spent many decades working in the voluntary sector for the preservation of cultural heritage. Post-graduate lecturer in building and landscape conservation and World Heritage management. Research into historic mortars and the development of drystone structures.

- Member of the Executive Committee of ICOMOS Ireland since 1993 and President (2005-2011).
- Founder-director (1991) and Chairman (2006 to date) of the Institute for Conservation in Ireland which has developed accreditation for conservator-restorers.
- Member of the ICCROM Council in Rome since 2005 and Chair of Council (2009-to date).
- Founder-director (2005) of the Building Limes Forum Ireland and member of the Executive Committee of the International organisation since 2002.
- Member of the Council of the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland (2003-2006).
- Member of the Museums & Archives Sub-Committee of the Heritage Council (2003-2006).