What's happening on 18 April?

Tomorrow on 18 April, we will celebrate the International Day for Monuments and Sites. This year, the theme of the day is Rural Landscapes.

Local communities and ICOMOS members around the world have organised special events to celebrate our heritage, and we encourage you to participate!

The list of 96 events in 44 countries is available here: <https://www.icomos.org/en/focus/18-april-international-day-for-monuments-and-sites/events2013>

Share your events on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram with the hashtags:

Help ICOMOS protect and conserve our shared heritage!

On the International Day for Monuments and Sites, ICOMOS is also launching a Giving Day to ask for your support.

We need your help to develop our important work, especially to provide support to our Emerging Professionals and to provide training and scientific activities in regions where we are still underrepresented.

The recent fire at Notre Dame Cathedral is an unfortunate reminder of the vulnerability of our shared heritage and of the need to protect it against the numerous threats it faces.

The 10 000 volunteer members of ICOMOS work every day to protect and conserve our heritage. On 18 April, we call upon your generosity to ensure our efforts can continue. Together, thanks to your donations, we can have a stronger impact on heritage protection, promotion and conservation.

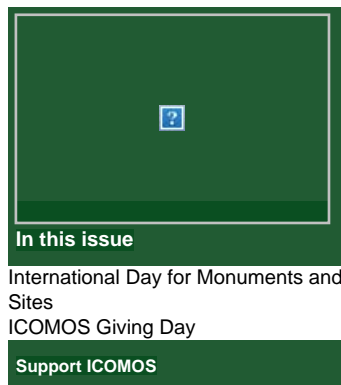

Every gift counts: click here to donate <https://chuffed.org/project/icomos-18april>

Use the hashtag #ICOMOSgivingday to encourage others to participate!
